Foreword

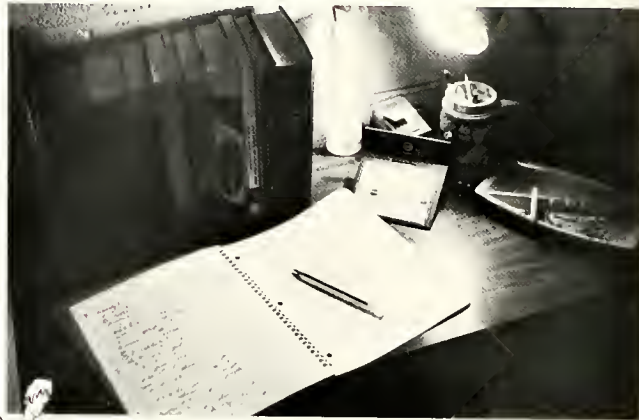

This year has been one full of happiness, sadness, laughter, and tears. There has been a time for everything. The time has passed all too quickly, but the year has been one of growth and change. It has been a time to learn, to seek, and to accomplish. Memories never die, but they fade with the passing of time. To help save the memories of this past year, the 1967 LOTUS brings to you the highlights of the college year. Thus we set forth our theme, "A time for everything," to reflect our growth in this, our LOTUS of 1967.

DEDICATION

As we consider the growth of Peace College over the last three years, there are two men who stand out among those interested in the growth of this college as outstanding leaders for progress. These men have donated time, money, and talent to the projects the school has undertaken. These men are well known to every student by their friendly natures and personal warmth. Not only are these men outstanding in their work for Peace College, but they are also outstanding citizens of Raleigh, serving in various fields of business as well as in community activity. These men exhibit a zest for life that only loving life can give. To the Foundation Committee and the Board of Trustees who have unselfishly worked for the benefit of Peace and to the chairmen of the committees, W. Trent Ragland, Jr., and Micou F. Browne, we dedicate the LOTUS, 1967.

PRESIDENT'S LETTER

PEACE COLLEGE

RALEIGH, NORTH CAROLINA 27602

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

Dear Students of 1966-67:

There is in reality a time for almost everything; and time productively spent at Peace College should provide the fulfillment of many wants, wishes, and needs. It should provide experiences relevant for the art of living as well as for the task of making a living. It should provide time for maturing and for cultivating an awareness of national and international issues, and it should afford occasions for enjoying good times and for establishing life-long friendships. It should provide time for studying important events of the past and for relating these events to present and future life. It can truly be said that these are important years--crucial years. I can only hope that you will look back at a later date and say that it was good to have been at Peace College in 1966-67.

We here at Peace are earnestly striving to integrate the old with the new--the progressive with the traditional. Peace is the possessor of a proud and well-known heritage. It has an atmosphere which has been referred to as "Ivy league" among junior colleges, so Peace is recognized as being distinctive. We cannot, however, rest on our laurels. Just as major accomplishments of the past have served to provide us with the proud heritage we enjoy today, we of this generation must be diligent in our efforts to assure future generations of a sound foundation and an equally proud heritage. The architectural blending of the traditional with the modern serves as an ever-present model for all we do.

To those students who leave us after this year, I would like to say that I am personally very glad that you came our way. You have been a delightful group with which to dream, to share, to hope and to work. As you leave Peace College to go your individual ways, please be assured of our interest, our best wishes and our prayers. God speed!

Sincerely yours,

S. David Frazier
S. David Frazier
President

Student Body

"... a time to learn"

*Time is our precious possession.
We cherish it. We long for more of it.
We spend it wisely. Foolishly.
Thus we gain a better and more complete understanding of it.*

*We realize that there is a time for everything.
A time to learn.*

To love.

To cry.

To laugh.

To understand.

To forget.

To remember.

A time to destroy and a time to build.

A time to be born and a time to die.

And in our time and seasons at Peace, we are molded. We grow and seek greater purpose in our time and lives.

Time does not become sacred to us until we have lived it.

We came . . .
 apprehensive,
 reserved,
 inadequate,
 seeking freedom and the chance to find ourselves.

We learned to investigate,
 to examine,
 to adjust.
 We put away our childishness and took up an air of maturity.

Our shyness and timidity melted in the warmth and friendliness of Peace.

We grew in wisdom,
 in thought,
 in understanding.
 We laid aside our fears and fused into a united class.

We are proud of Peace,
 proud of its traditions,
 proud to become daughters of Peace.

A TIME FOR EVERYTHING

The sand runs out in the hourglass.
We are leaving
 our security,
 our friends,
 our home.
 We are Seniors.

We force back tears remembering the past . . . Sentiment.
It is a time
 of challenge,
 of opportunity,
 of independence.
 We leave—
accompanied by the knowledge we have gained.

Stepping into the world, we seek life,
 love,
 a future.

Our time at Peace is over.
But we smile and remember—
 We are a part of Peace,
 a part of its tradition.

Senior Class

SIBYL RITA BARNES

Rita has been especially active during her two years at Peace, and her friendly ways are just another attribute to her outstanding character. As President of the Recreation Association, Rita proves to be one who seldom spectates but always participates.

Outstanding
Seniors

ALDITH EUGENIA CROOM

Genie is a well-known figure around the campus of Peace. She holds one of the most respected offices of student government, serving as President of the Honor Court. Genie's outstanding character led to her being elected Miss Peace, and it is no wonder we say that she is an outstanding senior.

SARAH LYNN DORSEY

Sarah Lynn shines like a radiant light in the atmosphere of Peace College. Her personality and talent are well-exhibited in the literary, musical, and dramatics activities of the College's life. Besides taking on the hard job of Co-Editor-in-Chief of the LOTUS, she is a Non-Resident Group Chairman and is active in many clubs on the campus.

ELIZABETH PITTMAN KOURI

Vivacious Liz is a merit to the school, as she has contributed much to Peace since she entered as a Prep. She not only gave us her brains by acting as President of the Junior Class and as Stunt Night Chairman, but she gave us her beauty by being Maid of Honor in our May Court.

MARY DAVIS MARTIN

Mary Davis, who is endowed with a great deal of leadership and responsibility, has done an outstanding job of serving Peace. As Student Government President her duties are innumerable, and she has certainly proved to be an outstanding senior.

GLADYS GAIL McLEOD

During her two years at Peace, Gail has certainly shown her dependability and responsibility as a leader of the College. Serving as Chairman of the Board of Non-Residents is a strenuous task, and she has done an outstanding job in this position. Never refusing when asked to do something, she has truly made herself known at Peace as one of our outstanding seniors.

MARY LASLEY THOMAS

A familiar and hard-working figure around school is Mary Thomas. During the last three years she has shown an enthusiastic interest in Peace by giving her time and efforts to its activities and functions. She is the Chairman of the Resident Group as well as Secretary of the Honor Court, and she serves in many other clubs around campus.

SUSAN RANKIN THURSTON

A smile for everyone is the trademark of Susan Thurston, the President of the Peace Student Christian Association. Her friendly and vivacious personality make her a well-liked and well-known person. Besides leading us in our spiritual program, she has been an eager participant in various other clubs and organizations at Peace.

Administration and Faculty

"... a time to teach"

They teach.

*They have the tools of learning,
of knowledge,
of interest,
of understanding.*

Using these tools, they create knowledge within us that will one day aid in creating knowledge in others.

*Their work affects eternity;
They never know the end of their influence.*

They inspire us with the desire to learn and the need to answer the unanswerable questions.

*Always they are present:
listening,
helping,
leading,
caring.*

Friendship is found among those who strive to teach us the ways of knowledge.

"To the true teacher, time's hourglass should still run gold dust."

Student Government

A feeling of unity, enthusiasm, loyalty to Peace, spiritual love, and a highly regarded academic program—these are only a few of the goals which the Peace Student Government Association has achieved this year. Through its capable officers, this organization promotes the cheerful and friendly atmosphere which pervades Peace. Its many accomplishments this year include the Halloween Carnival, Valentine Dance, Stunt Night, and the May Day Dance.

PEACE COLLEGE

RALEIGH, NORTH CAROLINA 27602

Dear Peace girls,

The Student Government has done its best to make this year the most successful that Peace College has ever known. We have set our goals high and, because of this we feel we have done much to help the students as they become acquainted with college life. We hope that our accomplishments have made this year the best for each of you.

The Student Council has tried to work for you through the administration. Only through a united effort of both the students and the administration has this been possible. The Student Council feels that this united effort contributed largely to any success that we may have had.

I personally want to thank each of you for helping to make my office a pleasant one. You have been a wonderful student body and because of that my tasks have seemed worthwhile.

I only hope that, in years to come, the good times we have shared this year at Peace will be well remembered by all of you.

Sincerely,

Mary Davis Martin

Recreation Association

RITA BARNES
President

The Recreation Association enables athletic and sportsminded girls to participate in intra-mural activities. Sponsored by the Physical Education department, the Recreation Association plans activities to correspond with the seasonal events of the year. The Recreation Association sponsored both volleyball and basketball games with neighboring girls' schools. The intra-mural program included tournaments in volleyball, bridge, ping pong, tennis, and swimming.

Recreation Association Council

Honor Court

The Guides for Living and the Peace College Honor Code are the standards by which the Honor Court governs the students. A necessary part of Peace, the Honor Court strives to encourage high standards in our girls, thus becoming an integral part of our college life.

Peace Student Christian Association

SUSAN THURSTON
President

Luke 2:52: "And Jesus increased in wisdom and in stature, and in favor with God and man" is this year's theme verse for the Peace Student Christian Association. The P. S. C. A. plans and administers various projects throughout the year which help to carry out the theme verse. In relation to its application in today's hurried world, the P. S. C. A. meets the spiritual needs of the student body and strives to help the students in finding their places as Christians in the modern world. Through Chapel programs, vespers, and special programs the P. S. C. A. finds ways of expressing its desire to help others.

P. S. C. A. Sponsored Activities

BIG SISTER—LITTLE SISTER

Sponsored by the P.S.C.A., the Big Sister—Little Sister program is designed to help new girls during the first days of adjusting to college life. Big sister Sally McDonald generously lends a helping hand, making sure her little sister Kate Farmer feels at home.

PEANUT WEEK

Jennifer Ashworth and Joan Crutchfield are pleased with the gifts their "peanuts" have left. During Peanut Week, another P.S.C.A. program, the girls do nice things for secret "peanuts." Peanut Week emphasizes another goal of the Christian Association—fellowship through kindness to others.

MORNING WATCH

"Start the day the morning watch way!" Can you think of a better way to begin the day? Under the leadership of Georgia Hall and Kathy Bynum, short devotionals were given each day at 8:20 in the morning. These brief periods of meditation proved to be a source of inspiration and guidance for many girls.

Advisory Board

Seated: Genie Croom, Sarah Lynn Dorsey, Mary Davis Martin, Debbie Jones, Mary Thomas. Standing: Gail McLeod, Sandra Bundy, Susan Thurston. Absent: Rita Barnes.

A relatively new organization at Peace is the Student Advisory Board to the President. Organized by Dr. S. David Frazier, the board meets with Dr. Frazier to discuss various problems arising in student-faculty and student-administration relationships. The informal meetings, held twice a month, are a means by which ideas of the school government at Peace may be expressed, presenting both the pro's and the con's of the groups concerned. The Advisory Board meets with the purpose of maintaining harmony among the administration, faculty, and student body.

Inter-Club Council

This year was the first year for the Inter-Club Council. Formed by the presidents of the major clubs at Peace, the purpose of the Council is to keep all the clubs informed of the activities of clubs participating in the Council. An offspring of the Student Relations phase of the P.S.G.A., the Council has done much to better relations among the organizations at Peace.

National Honor Society

Character, service, scholarship, and leadership are the criteria by which members of the National Honor Society are judged. These honor students of the Preparatory Department promote enthusiasm in all school activities, set fine examples for others to follow, and provide an incentive to others to attempt achievement in academic excellence.

Phi Theta Kappa

Phi Theta Kappa is a national junior college honor society for those academic students who have a "B" average or above. This year the society conducted projects ranging from doughnut and cake sales to lectures by members of the Peace College faculty. The induction ceremony for new members, which occurred after the first semester examinations, was the highlight of Phi Theta Kappa's year.

Alpha Pi Epsilon

Alpha Pi Epsilon, the national secretarial honor society, maintains a local chapter at Peace under the chapter name, Tau. Membership in the society is limited to those business students with a "B" average or above. Girls selected for this society seek to achieve the high excellence which is necessary in any business profession.

Art Club

Who knows? Maybe a member of the Art Club will be a modern Rembrandt! An interest in art and a desire to preserve beauty are the main qualifications for Art Club membership. The club's project this year was to raise money to purchase pictures for the school. Interested in beauty, the Art Club is another means of keeping Peace attractive for her future students.

Peace Dramateers

Act I Required: a natural ability to act and to entertain combined with the wish to present one's best to the public. The Peace Dramateers meet all these requirements and add many others.

Act II: The fall production of the Dramateers was Wilder's "Our Town," a dramatization of small-town life. The play was successful, playing to a full house for its two performances.

Act III: A spring musical, "Con Amore" by Mary D. Mack, was the finale to the Dramateer's year. The superb acting and enjoyable music brought rounds of applause from the audience.

Sitting, left to right: A. Dickerman, C. Dowda, L. Fiser, S. L. Dorsey, J. Earnhardt, A. Lamberson, M. L. Bryant, D. W. Spady, S. A. Warren. Second row: T. Barker, President; J. Advisor: Miss Wynelle Lewis.

"¿Hablar Español?" This is a familiar greeting of Spanish Club members at their monthly meetings. At their meetings, conducted entirely in Spanish, the members discuss customs, traditions, songs, and dances of Spanish and Latin American countries. The club's project was to give aid to Spanish families in Raleigh who have no means of support. The club benefits both school and community.

International Relations Club

What are the living conditions of the people in South Viet Nam? What countries are entering the threshold of nuclear power? These and similar questions are the ones around which the club plans its programs. One of the major projects of the club is to study a particular country's economic policies and conditions, its relationship to the free world, and its form of government. This year the club studied the Middle East, with particular interest shown in Israel and Jordan. The International Relations Club grows yearly in interest and enthusiasm, becoming a popular club at Peace.

The Delta Chi dance club offers creative students an excellent opportunity to express themselves. The members present traditional Christmas and May Day programs which add to the spirit of the season. The club offers to its members and audiences a modern interpretation of age-old themes.

Porpoise Club

"See the U.S.A. the Porpoise Club Way" was the theme of the entertaining and delightful Porpoise Club show held April 13 and 14 in the Hermann Center pool. The club is composed of enthusiastic girls who love to swim. The shows are created by the girls themselves and are performed for civic clubs and parties.

First row: J. Crutchfield, Sec.; A. Rutherford, Pres.; N. Tolar, V. Pres. Second row: M. A. Dupree, P. Quick, S. McDonald. Third row: J. Cowan, G. Frank, K. Copeland, B. Poteat, A. Wagoner, D. "The early morning sun glistened on the new fallen snow, giving the woodland a warmth that only snow can give." Such are the opening lines of some of the stories and poems written by the members of the Papyrus Club. This literary club publishes annually a collection of works composed by the members. The Papyrus Club serves Peace by enabling students to uncover their own hidden talents as well as to recognize the talents of others.

Home Economics Club

What is the recipe for a Home Economics Club? Combine such ingredients as styling, grooming, sewing, cooking, and home decorating. Warm with interest and enthusiasm. Sprinkle with many girls and let mixture stand. Result—one of the most active clubs at school. The Home Economics Club's theme this year centered around careers which stem from a study of home economics. Its many activities included sending Christmas cookies to the School for the Blind and the Methodist Orphans' Home, sponsoring an open house for the entire student body, and presenting the annual fashion show.

First row: M. Allen, M. A. Sorrell, P. Pugh, S. Gibson. Second row: J. Hammett, A. Sermons, K. Queen, Pres.; S. Barger. Third row: K. Currin, M. Pharr, B. Davis, M. Dudley, M. Kilgore, S. Stimpson, J. Paul, V. Daniel, A. Terwilliger, E. Potter. Advisor: Mrs. Ivan Jones.

A combination of talent, hard work, and pleasure makes up the Peace College Choir. The music presented by the choir adds to the Wednesday Chapel Service. This year the choir presented a Christmas concert and a spring concert. The choir has many duties besides those at Peace. Singing for special community and church functions, the Peace College Choir has become a favorite group in the Raleigh area.

Daughters and Granddaughters Club

If your mother or grandmother was ever a Peace student, you will be interested in the Daughters and Granddaughters Club. A tribute to former Peace alumnae, this club preserves the customs and traditions of Peace. This year the club labeled all of the portraits in the parlors and halls. The club members also served as guides for receptions and other alumnae functions. This club strives to promote tradition and appreciation for our heritage as "Daughters of Peace."

In two or three years the members of the Young Democrats Club will be taking part in the government of their areas. The members are well acquainted with the principles of the Democratic party. In the future these young Democrats will be applying their knowledge of government to carrying out their roles as able and interested citizens.

Young Republicans Club

The Young Republicans Club is composed of Peace Students interested in public affairs and good government. With strong convictions and a willingness to strive for higher goals, the club works hard during election years helping at the local headquarters. These members contribute greatly to our nation's political strength.

1967 Lotus

Deadlines, copy, unidentified pictures, ads — and the year passed all too quickly for the LOTUS staff. The final product—an annual which we hope represents a realistic and lasting picture of the year. Many hours have been spent in planning layouts, writing copy, taking pictures, and selling advertisements. It is our hope that this LOTUS will provide Peace students great pleasure in reading it and treasuring it for the years to come. Our desire is that it evidence the wonderful experiences of our year at Peace in 1966-67.

Peace Times

The Peace Times was published six times this year. The staff initiated a new trend by using original student work for editorials, interviews, and cartoons. The emphasis was placed on student affairs. We read about dances, club projects, and sports. This year's paper reflected the enthusiastic spirit of our life at Peace.

The newly formed Booster's Club has become an enthusiastic addition to the clubs at Peace. Headed by the star performer, "Beulah Booster," this organization publishes a weekly calendar of the events at Peace. The main purpose of the club is to promote school spirit. Who could resist with such a booster as Beulah?

Cheerleaders

With tremendous enthusiasm and abounding energy, our vivacious cheerleaders put life into the student bleachers at every contest. Their colorful plaid shirts and "hog-washers" brighten the courts and add intensity to the spirit of the game. Ask any team member about our cheerleaders and she will say, "They're the greatest!"

the past with remembrance."*

Orientation

Registration

Homesickness, new friends, old acquaintances—all these resulted in mass confusion, the typical beginning of a new school year. Orientation at Peace means hot hours in the gym registering.

Lawn Concert

After group meetings, assemblies, and campus tours were over, a lawn concert was held on the front campus of Peace. "The Winstons" provided great entertainment for the girls and their dates.

Picnic

To culminate a week of orientation, an informal picnic was held on the front lawn. The successful orientation added up to a big welcome for both new and old students to enjoy a new year at Peace.

Student Faculty Reception

At the beginning of each school year, students, faculty, and administration are faced with the problem of learning names, faces, and people. In order to overcome part of the confusion, the student government sponsored a student-faculty reception. The receiving line consisted of administration and new faculty members who greeted the "big sisters," who, in turn, presented their "little sisters" to the line. Refreshments served by the faculty members concluded the pleasures of the evening.

Honor Code Pledge Signing

In signing the Honor Code pledge, girls realize the importance of maintaining the high standards of Peace. The ceremony instills a sense of upholding truth and honesty in life at Peace as well as in the future.

"I will uphold the Honor Code and the Guides for Living of Peace College in spirit as well as in deed, in so far as it lies within my power to do so; and I obligate myself to encourage all other students to uphold these same standards."

Halloween Carnival

"Bewitched was the mood, haunted were the surroundings, and spirited were the participants at the Halloween Carnival." The carnival drew people from all walks of life—pie throwers to spooks. Students found a variety of activities to occupy their time—a kissing booth, a haunted house, an auction, a cake walk, apple-bobbing, and a "beauty" contest. This P.S.G.A.-sponsored event enticed students to enjoy the spirit of Halloween.

Christmas Concert

The Peace College Choir, under the direction of Mr. Raymond F. Kreiner, presented a Christmas concert. "Christmas Fantasy," "Winter Wonderland," "Carol of the Bells," and many other selections added to the holiday excitement.

Stunt Night

Potential Broadway stars were given the opportunity to display their talents at Stunt Night. Each class presented a skit which was judged by a selected panel. The winning class was awarded a trophy on which their name is engraved. This trophy is retained by the winning class for one year. Gail McLeod, Mary Thomas, Liz Kouri, and Jane Walker hold the trophy for the winning skit, "You better believe it—Baby Cakes."

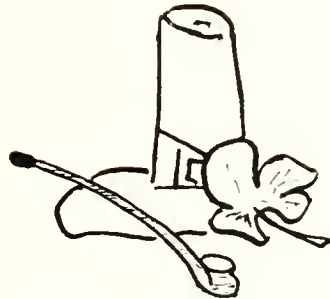

Tennis Courts

A new addition to the Peace campus were the tennis courts donated by Trent W. Ragland, Jr. of Raleigh. The courts have been used not only for class instruction but also for individual activity. Pictured here is Sarah Scarborough congratulating Rita Barnes on winning a game.

Gene Barbour and "The Cavaliers."

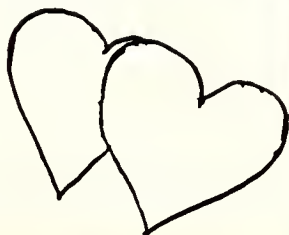

Weekend of the Green

The highlight of the social year at Peace was the Weekend of the Green. This activity sponsored by the Student Government Association began on Thursday and Friday evening with the presentation of a water show by the Porpoise Club. Saturday evening the couples danced to the music of Gene Barbour and "The Cavaliers." This weekend at Peace is celebrated through the tradition of St. Patrick's Day.

Valentine Dance

Cupid paid a visit to the Peace campus this year and shot his magic arrows at the Peace students and their dates as they attended the Valentine Dance. Willie Tee and "The Magnificents" supplied the music and entertainment for a successful dance which paved the way for future social activities at Peace.

Marshals

Just who are those girls with the white dresses and green ribbons? Those girls are marshals and serve as guides, representatives, and hostesses for all important functions at Peace. The honor of being a marshal results from the possession of leadership abilities, a high academic average, and the vote of the student body.

Dr. Ralph T. Overman

Dr. Ralph T. Overman, noted nuclear scientist, spoke to the student body on the topic, "A Scientist Looks at Religion." Presented through the Danforth Lecture Series, Dr. Overman introduced a term new to many of the students—"activation analysis." His discussions were centered around the nuclear reactor as a tool for research and the newly devised mobile radioisotope laboratory. Dr. Overman caused the students to study and question their own relationship with God as he probed the scientists's relationship to God.

The Reverend Dr. Bernard Boyd

The Reverend Dr. Bernard Boyd, James A. Gray Professor of Biblical Literature at the University of North Carolina, was the guest speaker for Religious Emphasis Week. Dr. Boyd's topic ranged from "On Books and Experience" to "The Importance of Being Human." He conducted several discussions with students whose questions centered around his topics. Dr. Boyd enthusiastically inspired students and faculty as well as others who attended his lectures.

Speaking with Dr. Boyd are Debbie Jones, Diana Hanson, Helen Allen, and Susan Thurston.

Frans Reynders

An exciting new program was presented to the students by Frans Reynders, pantomime artist. His imaginative interpretations presented everyday occurrences in new and humorous ways. A part of the transcontinental tours for the Arts Program of the Association of American Colleges, Mr. Reynders, combined an old-world tradition with a new-world concept of comedy.

Peace Dramateers

"OUR TOWN"

Thornton Wilder's "Our Town" was the fall production presented by the Peace Dramateers. The play was the author's comment on life in a small town early in the 1900's.

Act III: Emily joins the dead.

Peace Actors Plan 'Our Town'

The Peace College Drama-Team will open the 1946-1947 season with Thornton Wilder's classic play, "Our Town" on Thursday and Friday, in Dr. Widdie Chapel on the campus. The play is directed by Prof. Thomas H. Johnson, assisted by Gail Frank, a freshman from Abbeville, and a freshman from Love Valley is stage manager. Glynis Wintstead is co-director.

Others in the play are Judy Eamhardt, Pat Pluman, Susan Rutland, Mary Wilson, Susan Knight, Betty Church, Susan Jane Strain, Susan Hauldie, Jane Walter, Frankie Jayne, Nora Weston, Sissy, Nancy Anderson, Doris Austin, Holly McCreager, Alma Killa, Scarborough, Gerald Wintstead, Mavis, a "Town" character, Dorinda, Beth Latcom, Anastasia, Thomas, Marjorie and Libby Rest, Sally Marston and Libby Rest.

Other male roles will be played by Prof. George Thompson and Fred Peace. Glynis Wintstead, Junior Bobby Stepp, Vernon and the other boys of the troupe are: Mike, Fred, Mike, Beckler, Goshen and Dick Patton.

The play is a "view of ordinary life in a live, English town. The play is constructed to give a literary copy of the principal characters. The principal characters are: George, the State Manager; N. C. Gray, the student who is called upon to help the audience understand the play; and his stage wife, a picturesque situation. He takes the audience into the center of the town and shows the people along with this thought about living and dying.

The first two acts depict daily life in Groves Corners and the courtship of Emily and George. The third act is played by George Lynn Dewey of Raleigh, and Curtis Baggett of Knox, N. C. State University. The third act is entitled "Death."

"CON AMORE"

"CON AMORE"

"Con Amore" was a light musical written by Mary D. Mack of Chapel Hill. The play depicts the adventures of college girls as they take a summer tour of Europe.

Student Life

"... a time to live"

Life is a mirror reflecting our growth, our accomplishments.

Peace is our life, our home away from home.

We adopt its ways. We learn its policies, follow its rules.

*But we find there are cuts for everything—
class cuts,
chapel cuts,
study cuts,
light cuts.*

*We are accustomed
to signing in and out,
to getting call downs,
to having closed study,
to writing permissions
and amidst it all,
"I'm sorry, I have a call for that floor!"*

But we pause a moment—to live, to think.

*We seek solitude, quietness
wisdom,
self-knowledge.*

*Peace College is an institution—an educational, a social,
a religious institution.*

Here we learn to live—to share with others our ideas, our hopes, and ourselves.

*We belong—
we are all mirrors creating and reflecting the spirit of Peace.*

STOMP MOO U.

"Let us live and love that which before us lies in daily life."

"March, Onward March."

"I'm sorry, but the number you have dialed is not a working number."

"Mr. Thomas, will you spell that again—viciss . . .?"

"If you have the audacity to doubt my veracity, I shall have to vicissitude."

"The hip bone's connected to the thigh bone, the thigh bone's connected to the knee bone . . ."

Language became the art of listening.

To sign in or to sign out, that is the question!

From the top, beginning with "Twinkle, twinkle little star."

Would you believe chicken—AGAIN?

Here's my donation for the kitchen help.

Sure you can use it—it leaks!

Shhhh . . . not so loud, I'm on restriction.

Knowledge, like fine pearls, has a luster all its own.

"Letters, letters, we get stacks and stacks of letters."

A "bridge" to better understanding.

Music—talent with creative expression.

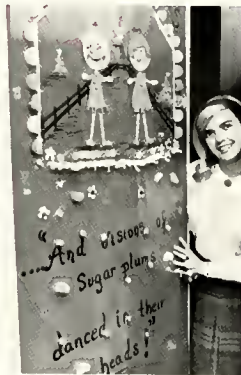

"You better believe it, babycakes!"

A helping hand and the needed concern.

These Southern KA's just kill me!

What do you mean "a room check"? There's no man on this hall.

All this for a C in P.E.?

"I got you, babe."

Forget it, beards tickle.

"Hello Ed, I mean Daddy . . . Mrs. Mellette gave me permission to call."

The morning after the night before.

What do you mean, "Closed Study?"

"Quick! Behind the pole, the hostess is looking."

Is being pinned really worth it?

"Hey, I know you!"

"Hail, all hail to Peace!"

A memory—the way you look tonight.

Solitude, a moment to share with yourself.

Advertisements

"... a time to buy"

Life at Peace goes on amid the traffic and commotion of each day.

*We are a part of our community—
a part of the continual buying and selling.*

Bargains—the best for the least.

*We belong to the familiar cycle of shopping—searching,
fitting,
deciding,
purchasing.*

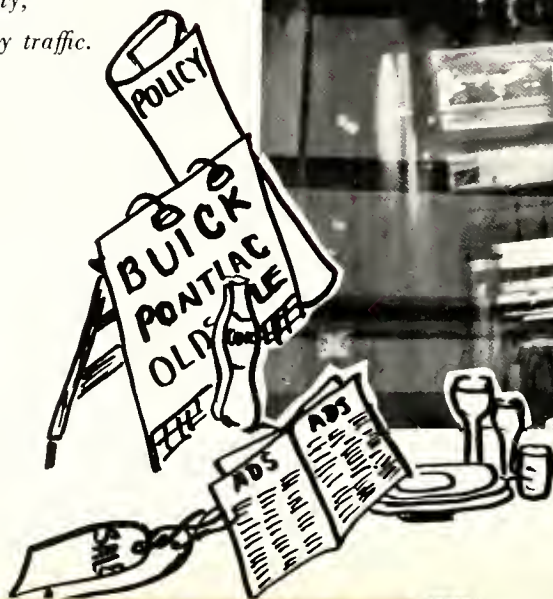

Well, here they are—the ads.

*They tell us where to find a cork screw,
a hamburger,
that new Mod slip,
an aspirin.*

They mark the close of another year, another annual.

But most of all they show the interest of these local merchants in us.

*We feel needed, important,
a part of our community,
a part of the daily traffic.*

"Whilst you are upon the Earth, enjoy the good things that are here."

ALWAYS FIRST QUALITY

THE PENNEY STORY

Why make such a big, big deal out of quality?

By ROBERTA NASH

If you ever want to get a Penney man going, ask him why Penneys makes such a big deal out of quality. Then stand back.

I asked a Penney store manager the question once and when he finally decided I was serious, he said, "If I could use only one word to describe the phenomenon of Penney's, I'd pick the word, quality."

"Mr. Penney has always been a fanatic on the subject," he continued. "They say the only thing that still makes Mr. Penney angry is when someone suggests we compromise Penney quality to make a lower price."

The year is over. New horizons are ahead of us. The past year has been a time to live, to learn, to laugh. As we look to the future, we can remember to—

*Look forward with hope
And backward with pride.*
